

DENVER UNIT 361 VICE PRESIDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

The Vice President acts as President in the absence of the President.

If not running for reelection, the Vice President chairs the Nominating Committee, which solicits candidates for election, arranges the ballots, and the staffing at the voting table together with the counting of the ballots.

The Vice President should be available to chair committees appointed by the President.