Today's Speakers

Norma Sands had the largest private bridge teaching studio in the country for many years. She has written 12 books with Jan Janitschke and is a top player in Denver. Norma will be speaking today about Transfers: Minor Suits? She will be in the Big Thompson room in the lower level at 12:15.

Billy Miller is a world famous player from Las Vegas. He is a fierce competitor who plays a pretty standard 2/1 game forcing card. He writes the Dear Billy column for the ACBL Bridge Bulletin. His other passion is caring for ducks. Today he will hold a session of Dear Billy Live at 6:15. Bring your questions and enjoy this interactive event.

Youth and Juniors who are ACBL members in good standing are eligible for a $6 discount per session. Must be 25 or younger and not playing for hire.

FREE PARKING

The parking garage is free to bridge players this week. Enjoy!

At the Naropa Institute In Boulder, students in Buddhism are taught the concept of the harmony and unity of the universe. One day a student there decides to take an afternoon break from the routine of studies and strict diet. He walks into a pizza parlor on the Pearl Street Mall. After studying the wall menu for a few minutes, he is asked by the clerk, "How may I help you, sir?" The student replies, " Make me one with everything."

Years ago two bridge-playing little old ladies from Pueblo went to an ACBL national tournament in New York City. Playing in a pairs event against two experts, one LOL opened the bidding with one club. The first pro passed; ; the second LOL bid two clubs; the second pro passed. Pass, pass. The contract was two clubs; the lead was made, the dummy came down and play proceeded.

At the end, the result was two clubs bid and made. At this point, one pro turned to the declarer and said, "Ma'am, do you meant to tell me that you came all the way from Pueblo, Colorado to New York City just to play two clubs?"

"Yes, sir," she said. "But, in Pueblo, we wouldn't have made it."

5 Deadly Terms Used by a Woman:

- 1) FINE: This is the word women use to end an argument when she knows she is right and you need to shut up.
- 2) NOTHING: means something and you need to be worried.
- 3) GO AHEAD: this is a dare, not permission, do not do it.
- 4) WHATEVER: A woman's way of saying screw you.
- 5) THAT'S OKAY: She is thinking long and hard on how and when you will pay for your mistake.

BONUS WORD: WOW! This is not a compliment. She's amazed that one person could be so stupid.

Robert S. Hartman was hired as CEO of the American Contract Bridge League in October 2011 after six years as the Vice President & General Manager of Golden Gate Fields race track in Berkeley, California. Previously, he was the Associate Athletic Director for the 28-sport program at the University of California, Berkeley.

One of Robert's first initiatives was working with the Board of Directors, Members and Staff on the development of a five-year strategic plan. The plan was a true collaboration of all stakeholders of the ACBL, and there are currently three strategic projects being worked on to move our organization forward. These projects revolve around enhancing ACBL's technology infrastructure, improving membership retention and examining the Tournament Director structure.

In 2013, the ACBL partnered with the Alzheimer's Association on The Longest Day which raised awareness for the disease and also raise nearly $575,000 in funds to support research and care programs. In 2014, the ACBL was recognized by the Alzheimer's Association receiving their Leadership Award. Robert thanks the Denver Bridge community for their support of The Longest Day at this tournament both this year and last year.

Robert earned his Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Arizona and his Master's degree from the University of Southern California's Marshall School of Business.

We are pleased to have Robert and Sylvia Hardin, Human Resources Manager for ACBL, at our tournament.
