Today's Speaker

A professional bridge player and teacher whose hometown is Tallahassee, Florida, but you'll find Robert Todd all over the country and world playing and teaching bridge.

Playing bridge interested Robert at a very young at his parents' party bridge games. He started playing duplicate as he worked on his graduate degree in Mathematics. While spending a year in Helsinki, Finland, he played with many fine European players. Upon returning home, Robert decided to become a bridge professional himself and hasn't looked back!

Robert plays bridge at local clubs and international championships. He's finished in the top 20 on the Barry Crane list (with over 1500 masterpoints) in both 2008 and 2009, posted several top-10 finishes in National-level Pairs events, and won the 0-10,000 Knockout Teams at the Dallas NABC in 2014.

Robert has degrees in Mathematics, Physics, and Political Science. He's been a computer programmer and a university teacher.

Hear Robert speak at 6:15 on a topic that leads to many partnership discussions: "Is It Forcing?"

FREE PARKING

The parking garage is free to bridge players this week. Enjoy!

Cell phones

The use of electronic devices is strictly forbidden in the playing area.

Do you know what the difference is between a mad psycho serial-killer and a bridge partner? You can reason with the serial killer.

We had a partnership misunderstanding. My partner assumed I knew what I was doing.

You know you're in trouble when the first thing the opponents decide to do is draw trumps, and you're the declarer.

They were at a concert. Said she, a bridge addict, "What's that book the conductor keeps looking at?" "That's the score," answered her escort. "Oh. Who's vulnerable??"

Bridge is a great comfort in your old age. It also helps you get there faster.

Joe knows nothing about the game. His wife plays twice as well.

Denver Unit 361 Mentor Project June—November 2015

What does a Mentee do?

- ◆ A mentee should have gained a few masterpoints already. If you are just learning to play, wait a while. A Mentor can help the less experienced—not the totally inexperienced.
- ◆ Respect the Mentor's time. Your mentor will allow time prior to each session to fill out a new convention card with you. This helps you review your current agreements and add new ones. Your mentor will also spend a reasonable amount of time after the game to discuss what you did right. Bring up one or two major problems that came up. Ask questions. Listen to the answers.
- ◆ Act on your Mentor's suggestions and information. Don't be too sensitive to constructive criticism. You want to improve, right?
- ◆ Appreciate your Mentor's efforts. Work to resolve conflicts. Your Mentor Project Coordinator can help you if you have a problem.
- ◆ Pass on the gift of mentoring by taking on a less experienced player as your very own Mentor Project.

What does a mentor do?

- ◆ A mentor has enough skill and expertise to have earned the title of "Life Master." You don't have to be a professional player. The Mentor Project Coordinator will discuss a few other criteria with you after you sign up.
- ◆ Make a commitment to play at least six times between June and November with your Mentee. To make an impact on their bridge career, you must invest time.
- ◆ Share your expertise willingly. Think back to when you had five masterpoints. What is the most important thing you know now that you wish you knew then? Share it.
- ◆ Give your time generously. Arrive a half hour early and fill out a new convention card together each time. Start with simple agreements and add a new idea or two each time you play. Discuss the game, pointing out what the new player did right, and bringing up one or two problems. Answer questions.

THE LONGEST DAY

For the third consecutive year, ACBL is a global partner of the Longest Day, a fundraising event sponsored by the Alzheimers Association. Held annually on the summer solstice (June 21, the longest day of the year), the events aid in Alzheimer's research and care.

In the last two years, ACBL bridge plays have donated more than $1 million to the Alzheimer's Association on The Longest Day, raised by clubs often offering games from sunrise to sundown. The Longest Day symbolizes the challenging journey of those living with Alzheimer's disease and their caregivers.

District 17 and the Las Vegas Unit are again working together to support The Longest Day. District 17 and the Western Conference are waiving their Snc-tion fees for the charity games played Monday, June 22 at the Las Vegas Regional. The Las Vegas Unit is giving those funds to The Longest Day. District 17 is contributing an additional $500.

Please join us in helping to fight Alzheimer's Disease. To contribute to the District 17/Las Vegas appeal, go to: <http://act.alz.org/goto/d17-lvregional>.
