Today's Speaker

Billy Miller

*Three Bid Hands:
What is bigger than a minimum and less than a game force?*

Billy is a full time professional bridge player, a multiple National Champion and noted lecturer, and has accumulated over 30,000 master points. He's also a Bridge Bulletin columnist whose "Dear Billy" column you've more than likely become addicted to.

Tonight he'll discuss practical approaches to three bid hands. Don't miss this all new lecture in the Ballroom at 6:15 p.m.

FREE PARKING

The parking garage is free to bridge players this week. Enjoy!

Cell phones

The use of electronic devices is strictly forbidden in the playing area.

Winners & New Life Masters

Please get your picture taken. Meet Don Boyarsky, our friendly photographer, near the bottom of the escalators at 6:40 or send a selfie to Don at dboyarsk@comcast.net. Your photos will appear in the District 17 Scorecard.

While giving a physical the doctor noticed that his patient's shins were covered with dark bruises.

"Tell me," said the doctor, "do you play hockey or soccer?"

"Neither," said the man. "My wife and I play bridge."

If you had to choose between drinking wine every day and being skinny, which would you choose, red or white wine?

Every family has one weird relative.
If you don't know who it is, it is probably you.

Overheard at the bridge club: We had a 75-percent game last night! Three out of four opponents thought we were idiots.

There are three kinds of bridge players:
1. Those who can count, and
2. Those who can't.

Never take a finesse to make your contract when you can go down on a squeeze play!

Did you ever notice that experts avoid the use of Blackwood, and novices use Blackwood with a void?

A well-balanced player makes up for his inadequacy in the bidding with his ineptitude in the play.

Did you hear about the guy who wanted to learn bridge in one day? He bought 35 copies of "Five Weeks To Winning Bridge."

Sorry, partner. I woulda led my singleton... but it was so small I couldn't find it.

Too bad, pard. That was an unlucky grand slam. The ace of trumps was off side.

'Beulah red' is the name of the red marble that gives the Colorado State Capitol its distinctive splendor. Cutting, polishing, and installing the marble in the Capitol took six years, from 1894 to 1900. All of the "Beulah red" marble in the world went into the Capitol. It cannot be replaced, at any price.

The world's largest flat-top mountain is in Grand Mesa.

In Fruita, the town folk celebrate 'Mike the Headless Chicken Day'. Seems that a farmer named L.A. Olsen cut off Mike's head on September 10, 1945 in anticipation of a chicken dinner - and Mike lived for another 4 years without a head.

The highest paved road in North America is the Road to Mt. Evans off of I-70 from Idaho Springs. The Road climbs up to 14,258 feet above sea level.

Colorado means "colored red" and is known as the "Centennial State."

The Durango & Silverton Narrow Gauge Railroad continues to provide year round train service operating a historical train with rolling stock indigenous to the line.

The United States federal government owns more than 1/3 of the land in Colorado.

Colorado contains 75% of the land area of the U.S. with an altitude over 10,000 feet.

Colorado has 222 state wildlife areas.

Colfax Avenue in Denver is the longest continuous street in America.

The 13th step of the state capital building in Denver is exactly 1 mile high above sea level.

The Dwight Eisenhower Memorial Tunnel between Clear Creek & Summit counties is the highest auto tunnel in the world. Bored at an elevation of 11,000 feet under the Continental Divide it is 8,960 feet long and the average daily traffic exceeds 26,000 vehicles.

Leadville is the highest incorporated city in the United States at 10,430 feet elevation. Because there was lots of "silver" named towns at the time, the founding fathers suggested Leadville.

Hundreds of thousands of valentines are re-mailed each year from Loveland.

Pueblo is the only city in America with four living recipients of the Medal of Honor.

Dove Creek is the "Pinto Bean" capital of the world.

The tallest sand dune in America is in Great Sand Dunes National Monument outside of Alamosa. This bizarre 46,000-acre landscape of 700-foot sand peaks was the creation of ocean waters and wind more than one million years ago.

The World's First Rodeo was held on July 4th, 1869 in Deer Trail.

Lieutenant Zebulon Montgomery Pike explored the southwest portion of the Louisiana Territory in 1806 and though he never climbed the peak that bears his name, he did publish a report that attracted a lot of interest to the area.

The slogan of "Pikes Peak or Bust," painted across many of the prairie schooners, was born at a time as fortune hunters headed west.

The Colorado Rockies are part of the North American Cordillera, which stretches 3,000 miles from Alaska, through western Canada and the United States, into northern Mexico. The centerpieces of this dramatic uplift are the peaks over 14,000 feet, or "Fourteeners", of which there are 52 in Colorado.

Rocky Ford has been dubbed the "melon capital of the world."

The Yampa River below the northwest town of Craig holds northern pike in the 20-pound range, while the Roaring Fork and Frying Pan rivers are prime spots for trout fishing.
