

President's Welcome

Welcome to our fair city, and to the 2016 Rocky Mountain Regional!

A tournament is a big undertaking, and people have been working to make this happen for the last six months. Big thanks to Jerry Ranney, who's serving as tournament chair for the second year and doing a terrific job. Others who are pitching in include Jeanne Achziger, Sherry Clint, Shirley Heinsohn, Bonnie Janzen, Carol Levinson, Susan Marshall, Flo Newlin, and Nancy Rassbach. (Note: This is absolutely not a complete list – a complete list would be way too long.)

The daily bulletin will always contain the next day's schedule, so check it for any schedule changes, as well as speakers and special events. Thanks to bulletin editor Carolyn Newcomb, who has already put in hours setting up the bulletin, and will be putting in more hours over the week. Be sure to let her know about interesting hands, strange and wonderful happenings, or major events.

Hospitality

Stop by the Hospitality Desk in the hotel lobby to register, pick up a patch and get a goodie bag with a coupon good at restaurants and snack bars, and get a restaurant recommendation.

Enjoy the tournament. A smile goes a long way!

The photographer will be available at 6:40 every evening, just outside the main playing site (the downstairs ballroom). If you win an event or make life master, come by and get your picture taken. If you can't make the scheduled time, snap a picture with your phone and send it to dboyarsk@comcast.net and carolynnewcomb@yahoo.com. Be sure to include the event and the names of the people in the picture, left to right.

And, if you want to take a day or an evening off and enjoy the city or the mountains, here are some of my favorite things to do. 1) Take Highway 74 up to Evergreen, a charming little mountain town. Be careful on the winding road – slow down and enjoy the scenery. While you're there, visit the Lariat Lodge, take a table on the deck overlooking Bear Creek, and sit back and relax. On the way back, stop in at Beso de Arte in Morrison and have a drink or appetizer on the patio. 2) Take Highway 72 up Coal Creek Canyon to the hamlet of Wondervu and have a burger and a beer in the Wondervu Café. 3) Drive down to Roxborough Park and take the easy (level!) one-mile hike through the amazing red rock formations. 4) Head to Washington Park and watch the joggers and bikers and vollevballers. 5) Google "Denver brew pub" and choose from the dozens listed. In case you didn't know, Denver has gotten serious on the microbrew front – watch out, Seattle! 6) Visit the Tattered Cover, a world-class bookstore. Better put a limit on your credit card first, though.

Have a great time both at the table and away from the table, may all your finesses win, and come back next year!

Winners & New Life Masters

Please get your picture taken. Meet Don Boyarsky, our friendly photographer, near the bottom of the escalators at 6:40 p.m. If you can't make it then, send us a selfie at dboyarsk@comcast.net and carolynnewcomb @yahoo.com with the names as they appear from left to right and the event you won. Your photos will appear in the District 17 Scorecard.

Mt Elbert Knockout Teams-Round 1 of 4 (continues Wednesday at 9, 1 and 7

The Pro-Am reception will follow the game at 4:30 p.m.

Enjoy ice cream Wednesday and brownies on Friday at 6:30.
