Today's Speaker

Anita Heitler

For Anita, winning never gets old. She is a platinum life master; she and her husband won the board-a-match event at the Albuquerque regional this past January. Anita is a certified director, teaches bridge classes and especially enjoys helping less experienced players improve their skills and reach their goals.

Listen in as Anita shares her knowledge regarding the use of penalty doubles and penalty passes and perhaps punish the opponents at 2:15 in the ballroom!

Friday evening results will be in Saturday's Bulletin. Look for them tomorrow.

Free Parking

The parking garage is free to bridge players this week. Enjoy!

Cell phones

The use of electronic devices is strictly forbidden in the playing area.

Shuttle

There is a free shuttle running every 15 minutes from the Renaissance Hotel to the Holiday Inn and the light rail, where you can get into downtown Denver for an evening on the town.

A prominent doctor was an enthusiastic but not very good bridge player. One day his friend, a man he occasionally played bridge with, fell sick and the doctor was called in.

The patient was gloomy over his condition, and the doctor made a careful examination. Wishing to reassure him that there was nothing to worry about, he said cheerfully, "You'll be all right. Mark my words, you'll live to play many a rubber of bridge with me as your partner yet."

"Oh Lord," groaned the despondent patient. "I think I'd rather die."
